Narrative

On 04/09/22, at approximately 1706 hrs., Edward Flanagan called Stowe PD regarding a custodial dispute. Edward has shared custody of his daughter, Leila Flanagan (DOB: 06/04/2009). Edward said that Leila was outside of his business, Stowe Seafood, and she was refusing to go home with Edward. He also advised the Derek Schnee was outside with his daughter, and that Derek was trying to intimidate Edward. Edward explained that Derek was the boyfriend of Leila's mother.

I responded to the Baggy Knee's complex and both Derek and Leila were sitting on a bench in front of the Edward Jones business. Derek had his arm around Leila and appeared to be comforting her. I walked over to the them, and Edward Flanagan walked over from his business. After introductions, I asked to speak with Leila alone. Leila agreed and we walked a short distance away to speak privately. Leila said that she doesn't enjoy staying with her father and step-mother, and that they are really hard on her. Leila explained that usually she switches back and forth to each household every week, but this visit with her father was going to be 20 days in a row due to Spring Break. Leila said that she was stressed out right now, and it was probably due to not getting enough sleep the night prior at a sleepover with friends. Leila just wanted to go home to her mother and Derek. Leila said she felt safe with Derek, who she identified as her "stepfather". Derek had come to the location because Leila had called him.

I asked that if she did not go home with her father today, would she call him tomorrow to figure out the remainder of the visit. Leila said "yes".

I spoke with Edward and explained what Leila had relayed. Edward said that the transitions between households have been tough over the past 10 years. Edward said that he had court documents to prove that she was supposed to be with him. I advised that he could easily go through the court system to make sure their custodial agreement is followed, however, I also advised that maybe Edward should try to communicate with his daughter and work on their relationship, especially as she was going to be a teenager soon. I said that my priority was to make sure Leila was safe, and advised that the custodial agreement was a civil issue.

Edward spoke with Leila for a few minutes alone, and they both agreed with a phone call the following day to figure out the rest. Leila went home with Derek to her mother's house.

End of report.
